- g. 7th Company (gun battery) at Hazlov; equipped with four 76 mm cannon and four 120 mm mortars.
 - h. Technical Company at As and Novy Zdar.
 - i. Supplementary Company at Bochov.
4. The regimental headquarters in As are connected by telephone with Cheb (N 1/P37), which has teletype facilities to Karlovy Vary. The headquarters also have at their disposal a short-wave transmitter which is located in the office of the DOZ officer in As.
5. The regiment has been brought up to strength with recruits from eastern Slovakia, and, as a consequence, the number of Communists in the unit is relatively small. The discipline and morale of the troops are poor.
6. A security group has been established in the 46th Regiment. It consists of four men commanded by the DOZ officer, Staff Capt. Hrdly. One of these men is a driver at headquarters; another works as a tourist for Capt. Hrdly; the third checks on the reliability of officers of the regiment, and the fourth on the reliability of enlisted men. An investigation is conducted by sending a questionnaire to the SIS station, to the security officer of the local National Committee, and to the Communist Party headquarters in the vicinity of the home of the person being checked. Questionnaires are filed in the DOZ office and are used in selecting soldiers for officer or non-commissioned officer training. Each questionnaire requests the following data:
- a. Financial circumstances and property holdings, particularly as to whether property has been confiscated or nationalized.
 - b. Punishment received by subject or his close relatives.
 - c. Effect of February coup on relatives.
 - d. Relatives living abroad.
 - e. Attitude toward present régime.
 - f. Political orientation and members'hip in societies.
 - g. Marital status. If married, above questions apply to wife also.
7. When arresting a person, the DOZ officer requests the local SIS to make the actual arrest. The DOZ officer is in constant contact with the security officers of the local National Committees, the District National Committees, and the secretariats of the Communist Party.
